BRITISH GRAIN TRADE. LONDON, March 5 .- The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: "English wheats are firm. The sales of English wheat during the past week were 54,565 quarters at 26s the past week were 54,565 quarters at 25s Kapress daily, it Lo 7d, against 49,868 quarters at 30s 2d during and Chicago Thron the corresponding week last year. Foreign wheat is steady. Flour is a fraction stronger. Corn is weak at 1d per cental decline. At today's market English wheats were dull; foreign wheats were firmly held. Flour of all sorts was steady. Oats were 6d dearer. Corn was 9d cheap-er. Beans were 6d higher. Lanseed de-clinsd 1s."

Chicago Grain and Produce, CHICAGO, March 5. - Another sharp break occurred in wheat today, the inside figures for May being just 45cc lower than outside prices yesterday and closing 2%c lower. July declined 3%c below vesterday's out-ide figures and closed 1%c lower than yesterday. It is difficult to give the eason for the weakness other than that there was but little demand and offerings quite large. A large local floor trader was Going West, pass, crun reported as having unloaded a line of long through through the long East passenger. Wheat. Fine weather here and an increase Going East, bassenger. of 264,000 bushels on ocean passage may The have helped the weakness. opening was about Made lower nan yesterday's closing and for a while the market ruled fairly steady, and prices then advanced 5(c, but shortly the market gan to weaken. closing figures.

More than usual interest was exhibited in hog products during the early part of the day and trading was quite brisk. Prices fluctuated considerably but on the whole range a material advance was established on all leading articles. Pork was strong early and prices advanced 300 Sic on closing figures of vesterday. At Hutch sanopolis, Pacilo and Denve ex. the improvement offerings were somewhat larger and prices recorded. larger and prices receded 100715c and closed rather steady. In a less marked degree land and short ribs followed the same course.

Is Constructed. The check-rower and other improved implements for planting corn by horse power have, to some extent, superseded the practice of hand planting on the large farms of the prairie region, but their use has not be come universal, even in Illinois, while in the States where corn is less a staple crop the greater part of the corn planting is still done by hand. Our illustration shows a very cheap and effective device for marking five rows at once. The runners are of oak or other hard-wood plank, two inches thick, three feet long and six inches wide, with the front rounded like a sled runner. 1125.00 The middle and two next runners are rigid-$500,015.04 ly held together by two strips, each four inches wide and seven feet two inches long, firmly bolted or screwed to the upper edges of the three runners.

The two outer runners are each fastened by similar transverse bars three feet seven inches long, and attached to the middle runners by hinges. Diagonal braces support the outer frames, and similar ones near the middle project forward far enough to serve as draught-bars. A tongue from an ordioy a long bolt. A guide consisting of a piece of two-inch plank eighteen inches long and six inches wide is firmly fastened to a bar two by four inches, seven feet two end of the bar is slipped over an iron pin driven for the purpose in either of the outer runners. A cord attached to the guide has a book at the further end which is slipped into the hame-ring of the horse. The outer runners may be folded over on the top of the middle ones when the marker is not in use. The construction of the hinges is shown by the small figure in the upper right hand corner. With transverse bars of the dimensions given above, the runners are set three and a balf feet from centers. If it is desired to have any greater or less distance between the rows, the marker can be modified accordingly. FLOWERS AND BIRDS.

They Take the Places of Friends with Busy Working-Girls. "What class of persons are your best customers?" asked a reporter for the New 202 20 York Mail and Express of a bird fancier re-

"Shop girls, seamstresses, milliners and ther working women," was his unexpected eply. "Rich folks buy the parrots, eduated canaries, the rare foreign birds and the expension and account of the control of the case of the other working women," was his unexpected reply. "Rich folks buy the parrots, educated canaries, the rare foreign birds and the expensive aquaria, but the pretty working-girls are the best and steadiest buvers of the common varieties, and without their custom we should fare badly.
